HELIOS TAKES THE TROPHY

J. N. CAMDEN'S CRACK TWO-YEAR-OLD CON-TINUES HIS VICTORIOUS CAREER.

res Clean Cut Victory in Stake Feature of Latonia's Closing Day Program and Will Be Retired for the Year.

Cincinnati, O., June 26.—The most successful meeting ever conducted at the Latonia track came to a close this afternoon with an attractive card of six races, the decision of which was witnessed by a banner crowd. Featuring the good offering was the Cincinnati Trophy, worth to the winner $3,405 and a massive silver cup. This event is one of long standing and annually engages the best juveniles of the west. This senson was no exception and its running clearly established the supremacy of J. N. Camden's Helios. The performance of the son of Star Shoot and Hindoo Rose left no room for argument, for he took the measure of his opponents in decisive fashion, leading practically from barrier rise and winning with something in reserve. H. C. Hallenbeck's Frederick L. was nearest to him at the end and Yankee Notions beat Hawthorn for third money. The winner was held in high esteem and ruled favorite in the betting. After his victory trainer Jack Keene announced that it marked the colt's last race this season and that he would be rested and allowed to develop with a view to the winning of next year's Kentneky Derby. The tabled history of the Cincinnati Trophy is as follows:

Intermittent showers fell during the afternoon, but did not affect the track. The handicap preceding the feature race went to Meridian, which scored over Grover Hughes and Presumption, with Sebago running much below his previous good showing. The mile and an eighth bandicap aroused even more interest than the stake race, because of the struggle in which Sprite and High Private engaged. Sprite appeared likely to win at the head of the stretch, but the Wainwright racer determinedly wore her down and got up in the last stride amidst tremendous cheering.

The closing dash went to White Wool, which showed his best form and beat Colonel Ashmeade. The latter was claimed after the finish for $1,000, by Adair & Baker. Sam Hirsch, a former winner, repeated in the opener, but his connections were disappointed because he sold in the field and did not bring longer odds. Casey Jones made a show of his opposition in the second race and won as his rider nleased.

appointed because he sold in the field and did not bring longer odds. Casey Jones made a show of his opposition in the second race and won as his rider pheased.

The judges concluded their investigation of the Byrne case and decided that the evidence did not warrant a continuance of the suspension against the boy, and so they lifted the ban. Judge Price, however, has submitted a report to the Kentucky State Racing Commission treating of the Byrne matter and the shortcomings of other riders at this meeting. The report is an extensive one and covers every case in detail. It is also said that Judge Price has made several recommendations to the commission and it is likely that several riders who rode during this meeting will be among the missing when racing is resumed in Kentucky this fall.

Capt. James H. Rees was among today's spectators and spoke enthusiastically of the racing here. Jockey Shilling is considering going to Sait Lake with the horses that will be handled by J. T. Ireland. H. C. Hallenbeck, his contract employer, is not averse to letting the rider go during the inactivity of his stable at Saratoga.

An idea of the remarkable volume of betting done at this track during the meeting just closed may be had from the fact that it averaged nearly $90,000 daily. Today's total was over $125,000.

W. O. Jopiln's horses were shipped to Fort Brie this afternoon.

Trainer Jack Keene will take several horses to Sait Lake for the racing there.

Barney Schreiber will send a number of horses to Sait Lake for the racing there.

Barney Schreiber will send a number of horses to Sait Lake for the racing there.

Barney Schreiber will send a number of horses to Sait Lake to be raced on the Utah-Montana circuit this summer. Mr. Schreiber will go to Fort Erie for a brief stay.

Judge Charles F. Price left tonight for Detroit where he will meet Messrs. Hendrie and others and go to Buffalo to witness the running of the Fort Erie Derby next Saturday.

George J. Loug's horses, including Free Lance, will be shipped to Louisville

REPUBLICAN WINS STAKE IN THE WEST.

Good Colt That Was Withdrawn from Coeur d'Alene

Spokane, Wash., June 26.—Alan racegoers received a treat this afternoon when they saw the good colt Republican win the Spokane Hotel Stakes from some of the contestants for Coeur d'Alene Derby honors. Republican was nominated for the Derby honors. Republican was nominated for the Derby but owing to some dispute his owner. C. W. Pelham. withdrew him. He outclassed his opposition and simply played with them in the last quarter, winning almost pulled up to a walk.

The first race today brought about a disqualification for the horse that finished second, Real Star, indulged in rough riding on the far turn. Truly, Bula Welsh and Camia were the sufferers. Camia was nearly knocked down. The riders also cngaged in a whip fight which lasted for several seconds. Groth lodged complaint that Hofman fouled him and it was allowed. The judges disciplined the boys by fining Hoffman $100, Taplin $50 and Mc-Bride, $25.
